WHAT CAN THE MIAMI-DADE BEACON COUNCIL DO FOR YOU?

The Beacon Council provides free, confidential, customized assistance to companies looking to expand or move into Miami-Dade County.

Services include:

- Site Selection Assistance — Identification and assessment of appropriate locations in the county.
- Market Research and Demographic Information — Demographic profiles, data on local infrastructure such as the airport and seaport, business data, and quality of life.
- Business Costs Information — Data on wages, office space costs, industrial space costs and taxes.
- Business Incentives — Strategic guidance and negotiation of local and state business incentives packages.
- Permitting and Regulatory Assistance — Support regarding county and municipal permitting and regulatory agencies.
- Financing Programs and Assistance — Identification of financing programs, such as the Industrial Development Bond program, that allow Miami-Dade businesses to expand and grow.
- Labor Recruitment & Training Assistance — Identification of agencies to assist with personnel needs including referrals to training programs that offer employer reimbursements.
- Employee Assistance Relocation — Assembly and coordination of a customized team to facilitate relocation, for example, residential real estate companies, banks, schools and moving companies.

IMPORTANCE OF PUBLIC/PRIVATE PARTNERSHIP TO LOCAL ECONOMY

As the County’s official economic development partnership, the Miami-Dade Beacon Council is strategically structured to facilitate job-generating investments in an increasingly competitive world.

The Council represents Miami-Dade in negotiations with new and expanding companies creating a space outside the government structure that allows for innovation, inclusiveness and confidentiality. During fiscal year 2015-16, the Miami-Dade Beacon Council helped add 1,762 new jobs and retain 1,078 jobs in our community. The companies that have expanded or located to Miami-Dade will spend $188.2 million in new capital investment and occupy more than 1 million square feet of commercial space. Many of them include small businesses known as the engines of job creation. The Miami-Dade Beacon Council welcomes the continued partnership with the County to ensure residents are receiving the economic benefits envisioned with a nonprofit public/private partnership to increase jobs and investment in the county.

STARTING A BUSINESS

Miami-Dade County is a vibrant, multicultural community filled with many opportunities for those with an entrepreneurial spirit. If you are at the stage of wanting to start your business, we offer you a few tips and an easy to follow guide. Whether you're just beginning to research business opportunities, or you're about to dive into a new business venture, many organizations in Miami-Dade County are prepared to help you and your business thrive.

STEP	What to Do	Where to Go
STEP 1	Decide to structure your business as a corporation, a limited partnership, or some other form for tax purposes and other reasons.	Consider seeking advice from an attorney or accountant in determining the best type of structure. TIPS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Contact one of the many organizations that specialize in providing these services to small businesses, generally at no cost - refer to the list starting on page 24. • Contact the Miami-Dade Beacon Council for a list of member attorneys and organizations. • Contact procurement organizations and request their list of certified accountants and attorneys. See Procurement section on page 17.
STEP 2	File with the Florida Department of State to legally create the entity.	Go to www.sunbiz.org for details. Quick and easy filing can be done immediately.
STEP 3	Obtain a federal Employer Identification Number (EIN) for your business.	Apply at the same time while creating your entity at www.sunbiz.com (noted above) OR Contact the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) directly. For more information contact the IRS at 800-829-4933.
STEP 4	Your new business may be required to collect and remit certain state taxes or fees. Register with the Florida Department of Revenue. Obtain a Local Business Tax Receipt from Miami-Dade County and /or in the Miami-Dade municipality where the company is located.	Go to Florida Department of Revenue on-line at dor.myflorida.com/dor/taxes/ or call 800-352-3671 (8:00 AM-7:00 PM EST, Monday-Friday) Go to www.miamidade.gov/taxcollector/local-business-tax.asp or call 305-270-4949.

STEP What to Do Where to Go

STEP 5

Determine if other county requirements must be met, such as receipt of a certificate or use (zoning) or an environmental permit.

Contact the Regulator Department to determine what is required. Go to www.miamidade.gov/economy/ or call 3-1-1 (yes, this is the correct number).

- For Zoning - contact www.miamidade.gov/zoning/ or call 305-375-2800.
- For Environmental - contact www.miamidade.gov/environment/ or call 305-372-6789.

STEP 6

Open a commercial bank account for the business contact.

Contact The Miami-Dade Beacon Council for a list of member investor banks by calling 305-579-1300.

ONE YEAR LATER

Register your business with Miami-Dade County for consideration as on-going county bid opportunities are offered. Also certify your company for special programs available to small business.

Miami-Dade County offers procurement programs for small business enterprises: To learn more see page 17 or call 305-375-5773 (procurement) or 305-375-3111 (small businesses)

Note: if you are an existing business relocating or opening a new office in Miami-Dade County you can register your business immediately and take advantage of the priority status assigned to businesses located in Miami-Dade County when bidding on contracts.

- Goods and Services - A gender and race neutral program specifically for firms that are defined as supplying goods and services other than construction, architectural or engineering services.
- Architectural & Engineering - A gender and race neutral program specifically for firms that are defined as architectural and engineering companies.
- Construction - A gender and race neutral program specifically for firms that are defined as independent construction companies.
- Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) - This is a federal program that ensures equal opportunity in transportation contracting markets. Promotes increased participation in federally funded contracts by small, socially and economically disadvantaged businesses, including minority and women-owned enterprises.

Local Developing Business (LDB) - This is a gender and race neutral program for small businesses that have non-exclusive permits to provide general aeronautical services to commercial airlines and aircraft operators at Miami International Airport.

ACCESS TO CAPITAL

A wide variety of financing is available to Miami-Dade County businesses. The length of time that a company has been in business, credit rating status, collateral available, and a number of other variables help determine the financing options that will best match your business.

Options include the following:

- Commercial banks provide short, intermediate and long-term financing for fixed assets, working capital, and international transactions.

Many banks throughout Miami-Dade County have enhanced their underwriting capacity for small and higher-risk businesses by offering government-backed loan products and have launched programs targeted to the small business market. Most banks will require two or more years of financial history.

and various professional organizations often feature financing workshops. They assist small businesses in developing a thorough understanding of the financial needs of your specific business and the type of documentation required by financing audiences if you decide to apply for funding. The aim is to best prepare you to maximize your opportunity for approval from the funding source you select. The weekly Miami-Dade Beacon Council e-newsletter includes a listing of upcoming small business technical assistance

- Select public agencies provide or guarantee financing for higher-risk businesses or for capital investments in selected industries and / or targeted areas.

workshops, including those covering access to capital. To sign-up for the e-newsletter go to www.beaconcouncil.com/weekly-newsletter.

- Non-bank financing sources, such as commercial finance companies, export management companies, factors, and equipment leasing companies provide alternative financing for higher-risk or new businesses.
- Venture capital, angel investors, and other equity financing options are available. The terms vary case by case. Networks are available that offer access to the various options in equity financing. There is also an emergence of online equity funding sources in response to the recent JOBS Act.
- Technical Assistance organizations, Chambers of Commerce, colleges and universities,

- Incentives focused on industry type, geographic area, development in underserved areas, talent recruitment, the hiring of employees in select categories, employee training, etc. may be applicable to you. Incentives often come as tax credits and some come as grants, a form of access to capital that can reduce your operating expenses. (These resources can allow your business to offer more competitive bids for new business and new capital.)
- CPAs, professional packagers, other private sector service providers, and other business publications, as well as publicly-funded programs, can assist businesses to identify and obtain financing from appropriate sources.

GOVERNMENT SERVICES

Close working relationships with county, and sometimes state governments are required when starting or expanding your business. To obtain a building permit, environmental regulations, fire inspections or occupational licenses, contact applicable departments of government.

If your business is located within a city you will also need a city license. Be sure to contact the appropriate City Hall. If your industry is state-regulated, you will also need a state license.

Many businesses can benefit from a number of incentive programs available to businesses in designated geographic or industry sectors. Programs such as the Empowerment Zone and Work Opportunity Tax Credit (WOTC) are government programs that offer tax credits to businesses that meet the criteria. The Miami-Dade Beacon Council is available to facilitate the process. Working with government also often includes extensive engagement with international consulates and foreign trade offices.

WORKFORCE RECRUITMENT AND TRAINING

Talented professionals play leading roles throughout Miami-Dade County's dynamic and diverse workforce.

Recruiting, screening, training, and developing the wealth of talent in Miami-Dade is key to the success of any business, therefore, we offer a number of resources that can assist you. In most cases the services are available at no cost. In the case of CareerSource South Florida, they also offer training grants and incentive programs. In all cases the strength of your workforce can reduce business operating costs, increase new business acquisitions, and maximize year-end bottom-line benefits. Highlights include:

- CareerSource South Florida is responsible for initiating state and federally funded workforce development programs in Miami-Dade and Monroe counties. They assist employers and job seekers with employment services, labor market information, and provide training for economically disadvantaged adults, youth, dislocated workers, individuals transitioning from welfare to work, and refugees. While promoting the advancement of underutilized workers, the CareerSource South Florida stimulates the labor market by implementing policies such as business incentives, and provides valuable resources to South Florida's diverse community. All CareerSource South Florida services and resources are available to everyone at no cost through a network of centers located throughout the region. There are 13 service centers in Miami-Dade County.
- Talent Development Network (TDN) matches employers offering paid internships with Miami's local students in fast-growing career fields that include aviation, creative design, hospitality and tourism, banking and finance, information technology, life sciences and healthcare, trade and logistics. Visit www.TDNMiami.com
- Colleges/Universities - The Career Offices offer access to top talent from upcoming graduating classes and from the extensive alumni pool. Presidents from these learning institutions come together quarterly to pro-actively discuss market changes and adjust the school curriculum offered in order to ensure that our current and future workforce meets the priority talent needs of your businesses.
- OIC of South Florida (OIC-SFL) is a community-based workforce development, education and training organization that prepares individuals for the world of work by providing vocational skills training.
